SMALL POTATOES TALK STIRS

Samuel Untermyer Attacks Emory McClintock and Refers to Old Unpublished Letters.

NEW YORK, August 15.—Following a breach made in the Internation Policy Holders' Committee by the withdrawal of Saymour Eaton, secretary, and Edwin of Seymour Enton, secretary, and Edwin Liebfried, its acting treasurer, it was rumored in the financial district yesterday that several well known members of the sommittee are likely to resign Certain members have shared with Mr. Enton and Mr. Liebfried the opinion that there has been, as one critic expressed it. Too much Untermyer's in the invoement and in the methods employed in its propaganda against the Mutual and the New York Life Companes managements. Withdrawalis may become known to-morrow, when the Executive Committee, of which Alton B. Parker is chairman, will meet in Mr. Untermyer's office. Vigorous efforts are being made, however, to hold the committee in line, at least until the Executive Committee shall have been able to frame its tickets in opposition to the nominees slated by the companies.

Bishop McCabe, of the Methodist Church, was friendly with Mr. Eaton, and the Rev: Dr. Conwell, of the Baptist Temple, of Philadelphia, was somewhat closely associated with Mr. Liebfried years before either knew Mr. Untermyer, May Not Answer Letters. May Not Answer Letters.

May Not Answer Letters.

In the International Committee's head-quarters it was said no reply had been sent to Mr. Eaton's letter of Saturday addressed to Mr. Parker, and the men most influential in the committee will probably advise that no more attention be paid to it.

Samuel Untermyer returned from a yuchting cruise of several days, and after a conference with O. R. Scrugham, his organization, manager, gave out a statement in which he said:

"I see that Mr. McClintock, of the Mutual Life, with a dignity quite in keeping with thee plane on which his company is conducting this controversy, refers to thirty-five of the more distinguishing men in the various wakes of life from all parts of the world as 'small potatoes.' Apart from all these men represent in their own persons, they are speaking for hundreds of millions of insurance in his company,

"Mr. McClintock's anxiety about the result of this election is easily undersiood. He was, next to McCurdy, the head and front of the unspeakable old regime and was an important part of the 'system' during all the years they were so tenderly 'caring for the policy-holders.

"When he refers to the most eminent tion by holding on by hook or crook to the trusts they have abused.

On Killing Legislation.

"As bearing on the value of Mr. Mc-Clintock's judgment of these gentlemen his written instructions in his own writing, not yet published, to the Massa-chusetts legislative agent of the Mutual as how to kill legislation will be interesting reading.

"Men like Judgy Gray, Mr. Parker, General Tracy, Mr. Olney, Lord St. Oswald and their thirty distinguished associates are "small potatoes" in the insurance high finance with which Mr. McClintock has been identified all these years.
